

The overcast skies and unwelcome forecast may have dampened the enthusiasm of some (PP's apologies!), but generous-hearted folk staffed and attended, brollies in hand. Nuala & David made all welcome to their spacious garden - and house. Party-folk came from all the deanery parishes - a great sign of community in faithful partying. Even the bank-staff were incredulous with the amount raised at a damp garden-party to be added to the parish piggy-bank - £821. A thousand thanks! And the next fundraiser...

FOLK NIGHT an evening of folk and acoustic music in St Charles school hall. Many of you will recognise our own Ruth Fuga, former pupil of St Charles and member of the parish. Saturday 28 September 2019 doors open 7.30. Tickets £8 adults, £5 children to include supper. Licensed bar, booking essential. Please contact Sue Hoolahan 07596 728633 or any member of the Parish council.

OUR PARISH COUNCILS meet this Sunday to continue to plan ahead for "Deanery 2021". See times on p.1.

HOLIDAY-READING THOUGHTS ahead of the new school-year: are there any parish-ioners would be willing to help out in St Charles school by reading with the children? Send a message and we'll put you in touch with the school.

DIOCESAN APPOINTMENT Following the retirement of Mr Edward Poyser as financial secretary for the diocese, Mr David Lawes has been appointed as Chief Operating Officer with responsibility for Property, Finance and Central Administration. David has been working in a similar capacity for the Diocese of Portsmouth for a number of years. How-ever David's new workplace has a problem...

WILLSON HOUSE is a diocese-owned office-block adjacent to the Cathedral in Nottingham. It is the registered address for the admin of the diocese. It houses many of the offices of diocesan responsibility - finances, property, tribunal, curia, archives & so on. Falling masonry caused it to be abandoned six weeks ago, and all staff had to move to other temporary offices. Surveyors & insurers come and go still, and the office's future is in the balance.

BISHOP PATRICK hopes to preside at the annual Diocesan Health Workers Mass on Saturday 7th September at 11.30 am in the Cathedral. Any & all healthcare workers are welcome.

OUR DIOCESE seeks to appoint a clergy health and well-being coordinator to work with the Bishop and others to provide support for the health and well-being of clergy throughout their ministry and into retirement. This is a salaried, Nottingham-based appointment. Please let me know if there is any local interested party.

CLERGY NEWS Fr Peter Harvey, erstwhile of BB/GAM parish, is confirmed in appointment to Sleaford parish; Fr Paul Chipchase moves soon from Hucknall to Loughborough. Frs John Joe Maloney and John Guest are amongst the priests retiring within the month. Both their parishes (Blessed Sacrament Leicester and All Saints Ashbourne) will no longer have resident parish priests. Eheu!

RACHEL NAUGHTON RIP This young mother died in April. Her funeral rites took place at St Charles. Her ashes, at the family's request, were interred with simple ritual, in the rose bed adjacent to the church this weekend. May she rest in peace.

PARISH NOTES

THIS WEEK we extend a particular welcome to those visiting our area during summer (?) days! Our parish worship is always enriched with the company of visiting worshippers. Welcome, in the name of the Lord!

BEST THANKS to those who gave support to the parish garden party last weekend.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY (C) Psalter Week 4

Introduction to the Readings : The zealous Christ wants to enflame us with his compassionate love

First Reading : Jer 38 : The prophet is promised a message of strife.

Resp Ps : LORD, COME TO MY AID!

Second Reading : Hebr 12: Keep on running the race of salvation.

Gospel : Lk 12 : Christ come to divide and enflame with his zealous love.
