

MASS COUNT These weekends we are required to count the numbers of worshippers at our Masses. Attendance at Mass on the Lord's day is part of Catholic duty and identity. These figures help us to check the vibrancy-in-faith of our parishes.

THE WEDNESDAY GROUP meets after Mass on 2nd October. The group welcomes a rail-enthusiast who come to speak about local train-service provision & history.

REGIONAL CATHOLIC YOUTH GROUP This newly-formed Youth Group plans to start on Friday 4th October at St Mary's Hall in Glossop between 6.30 pm and 8 pm. All secondary-school-age Catholics are welcome!

THIS FRIDAY is the first Friday of the month. Your clergy hope to visit the household, offering the gift of Holy Communion. Please advise if you know of someone who would welcome a visit.

CAFOD FAMILY FAST A familiar autumn invitation comes our way also this Friday, when we are invited to fast from feasting and offer the proceeds for the care of the hungry. Please take an envelope from the back of church and bring it to Mass next week-end with your generosity enclosed.

PUBLICATIONS As we approach the month-end this week, familiar publications are available from the back of church:

- "Crusader" : free-of-charge;
- "Diocesan Newspaper" : free-of-charge;
- "My Day by Day" : free-of-charge;
- "Magnificat" - £5

'Tolle, lege', take and read and enhance your spiritual life during October.

OUR LADY OF THE HOLY ROSARY We find ourselves on Tuesday in October, the "Rosary month" in Catholic devotional life. I hope that may will honour Our Lady with this prayer frequently, especially during October. Whenever possible, the rosary will be prayed publicly in our churches day by October day starting 20 minutes before morning Mass.

PARISH NOTES

THIS WEEKEND we are invited to give thanks for the fruits of the harvest. We pray many times "give us this day our daily bread"; a chance to be grateful to our provident Father for "giving us our daily bread" - and to pray also for those who laboured with crops to provide for us.
