

BEST THANKS to those who organised, staffed and supported the coffee-morning at Bradbury House on Saturday.

UNIVERSAL MONTH OF MISSION comes to an end as October gives way to November on Friday. Continue to support Missio with your Red Boxes - all of which should have found their way to church before next Sunday evening.

ALL SAINTS is celebrated on Friday this week. It is a holyday of obligation. In addition to the usual morning Mass at Immaculate Conception, there is planned a 7pm Mass at St Charles.

FIRST FRIDAY VISITS are planned on 1st November. Please let us know if anyone would welcome a visit.

ALL SOULS DAY is on Saturday, reminding us that November is the month of the Holy Souls.

NOVEMBER LISTS With November starting this week, with its remembrance of the faithful departed, you'll find the familiar Dead List slips & envelopes at the back of church for your use.

REMEMBER, REMEMBER You will find the familiar British Legion red poppies for sale from the back of church.

And looking ahead, we will be praying with particular regard for the War dead and deceased parishioners on Remembrance Sunday, 10th November. There will be DV, the familiar cemetery (2.30) and garden-of-remembrance (3pm) visits that afternoon.

PUBLICATIONS the familiar monthly publications are available from the back of church. "Magnificat" have sent additional copies for October (which is an outstanding edition - please take a copy free-of-charge), and November. Why not take a copy for a friend or family-member?

HELPFUL GUIDANCE After 11am Mass next Sunday the 3rd November at St Charles, there will be a session, led by Deacon Owen, for Extraordinary Ministers. It will be on best practice in leading services of Word & Holy Communion. Ministers from all three places of worship are invited.

SCHOOL'S OUT! Happy hols to staff and pupils as half-term break is upon us.

MASS-ATTENDANCE Our customary annual weekend-Mass attendance head-count has been made. The average over four recent weekends: GAM 25; BB 48; HAD 92. The figures give us food for thought, prayer and urgency to reach out to those who no longer come to Mass. "There is more rejoicing heaven over the return of one lost sheep . . ."

BISHOP PATRICK has sent a letter for all parishioners ahead of the upcoming investigations by IICSA into historic abuse in the Catholic church in our land. Please take a copy from the back of church if you wish.

DON'T FORGET SYCAMORE COURSE

This is for those interested in Catholicism, as well as those Catholics who would like to reflect further on the Faith. It also is useful for adult Catholics who have not made their first communion or been confirmed. Forms are available at the back of Church.

The first session is Tuesday 19th November, 7pm-8.30pm, at All Saints, Glossop. Subsequent sessions will run on Tuesdays: same time, same place. All welcome. Please see the handouts at the back of church and follow the instructions!

Please recall in prayer our deceased priests and parishioners whose anniversaries occur about this time : Fr James Daly, Mary Whitham, Clifford Banner, Terence Curran, Ronald Howbrook, Jack Seale, Bernard O'Hare, May Perrin, Isabella Clarke :

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord : May they rest in peace : Amen

PARISH NOTES

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE We lament the recent death of Joan Marie Bernadette Enever (78) (Green Lane, Hadfield). Our sympathy and prayerful support go out to Robert her husband, and Debbie, her daughter, Joan's funeral service at St Charles is indicated for 11am on Tues 5th November. May she rest in peace.

THIS SUNDAY Are we an hour older all of a sudden? Hope you remembered the clocks 'falling back' early Sunday morning.
